The Road to Independence in Mexico

- IMMERSE yourself in Mexican culture for 2 weeks in a beautiful, traditional colonial town.
- STUDY Spanish at a first-rate language school.
- MEET the people.
- ENJOY weekend and weekday excursions to surrounding cultural and historical areas.

Objective: This travel study program is designed for life-long learners who are interested in spending two unforgettable weeks in Cuernavaca, México, "The City of Eternal Spring." The topic of this study program is Mexico's search for political and cultural independence. It culminates with the celebration of "las fiestas patrias" or the Independence festivities in Morelos, México.

Unique benefits:

- Language study, in small group classes with native speakers, elementary, intermediate or advanced conversational and functional Spanish. No tests, a stress-free opportunity to learn or practice the language at personal speed and needs.
- Classes in Mexican History & Culture. Each study program focuses on a specific theme, to provide and in depth look at some important aspects of the Mexican heritage. Courses designed by academic specialists in the field.
- Optional evening activities such as dancing and folk art workshops.
- Home stays with Mexican families in double room occupancy, transportation to and from the school, three meals a day. A unique opportunity to live with a typical Mexican family and become a part of their lives. Alternative accommodations at our on-site "VITALI suites" are available upon request with 2 meals per day at double room occupancy.
- Guided tours to complement the class subjects.
- Overnight excursion to México City.
- Use of Kukulcan facilities which include indoor and outdoor classrooms, swimming pools, manicured gardens, reading room, cafeteria, wireless internet access, 15-minute walking distance from downtown.

Cost per participant: $1,550 US (excluding airfare, transportation to Cuernavaca and university fees).

*Optional add-on: Stay for Mexico's Independence Celebrations, leave on Sept. 17th. We can help you arrange a weekend visit to Querétaro, one of the birthplaces of México's independence movement. Price will range on the number of students enrolled and confirmation needs to be by July 31st, due to the holiday season.

What's included in the cost: Tuition, registration fee, accommodations in double room occupancy at host families, 3 meals a day, excursions (consult itinerary for the 2 weeks on the next page), books, daily transportation to and from school, wireless internet access.
